

July 2010

Dear Music Educator,

You've surely heard about the new era of energy and excitement at the Portland Symphony under Music Director Robert Moody, and possibly even experienced it for yourself. Now, you could enjoy all the benefits of subscribing, including priority seating and the flexibility of no-fee ticket exchanges at an even greater savings than the usual 10%-20% off single ticket prices.

In honor of your commitment to music education in the state of Maine, we are pleased to offer you a special introductory 2010-11 subscription offer of 50% off single ticket prices.

With package prices starting as low as $42.50, you can enjoy the best available seats in the house for as little as $28 per ticket. Prices and available seating areas are below, visit PortlandSymphony.com for complete program information.
